"Don't he envious of the rich," advises a contemporary. Hardly. Nobody cares to be marked for investigation or indicted on general principles.

You needn't think that the trial of Judge James Hargis charged with the murder of James Cockrill in Breathitt county, Ky., has not been dragging along. It is announced from Lexington that a verdict may now be expected at any day.

In the Clinical Record Dr. Charles S. Moody writes an article to prove that the Indian is cleanly and falls all over himself to take a bath whether the water is warm or full of ice. The Doctor is up against it as hard as some people who insist on convincing us that black is white.

The minister who tied the knot for Ellis Corey and his actress bride said he believed "the match was made in Heaven," but he now confesses his mistake. Being a gentleman of the cloth, he might have known St. Peter never opens the gates for match-making of that kind.

Says the Greensboro Tar Heel (Rep.): "The word-war of Butler and Adams is getting monotonous. It is time for them to put up something stronger than hot air." They have said things that not many years back would call for them to put up a stiff fight when they cross each other's path.

It is stated that Nicholas Longworth, President Roosevelt's son-in-law, wears only English-made clothes. He stocked up on his wedding tour with a large assortment of London goods, which are the envy of his fellow associates everywhere. This is where Nick took advantage of the opportunity to dodge the tariff with which he helps to burden people who can't do their buying in London.

Next Thursday will be Patrick Henry Day at the Jamestown Exposition, and the Hon. Wm. J. Bryan will be the orator of the day, his subject to be "Unjust Taxation." Hon. W. E. Cameron, former Governor of Virginia, will also be one of the speakers. The Ex-Governor is a man of rare gifts and fine ability, and it will be a lucky man that hears Bryan and Cameron on the Virginia patriot orator, who set aglow the spirit of liberty in the American heart.

NEWS FROM RALEIGH

ROWLAND-STRANGE CASE

Several Days Before Result of Chemical Analysis is Known—Insurance Department is Busy. Changes in Education.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., May 22.—The Corporation Commission has received notice from the Wilmington Chamber of Commerce that an agreement has been reached with the Atlantic Coast Line and the Seaboard Air Line whereby it will be agreeable for the Atlantic Coast Line passenger station to be enlarged and improved to accommodate the trains of both roads instead of erecting an entirely new union station on another site as ordered some time ago by the Commission. Members of the Commission say that the plans in detail for the enlargement of the Atlantic Coast Line station have not been submitted and they can take no action until they are in hand. The Commissioners are free to express themselves, however, that it will require a very considerable improvement in the capacity of car sheds and waiting rooms with a new and more commodious concrete bridge, much wider than the present one, leading to Front street, to anything like meet the requirements of an adequate service.

Assistant Commissioner of Insurance W. A. Scott returned this morning from Lillington where he procured from the grand jury true bills against J. B. and Will Holland, charged that they burned their store in 1904 at Turlington's Cross Roads, in Harnett county, in order to get the $2,000 insurance. He says the evidence is that the goods were practically all moved out of the store to the dwelling before the fire. J. B. Holland is prominent in that section having been in the United States internal revenue service for some time. Will Holland is his son.

Commissioner Scott left this afternoon for Winston-Salem to appear against J. G. Golstein in his trial in the Superior Court there for attempting to burn his dwelling for the insurance. The charge is that he started four separate fires along the wall in the kitchen with kindling and oil and at the same time oiled and set fire to two beds in an adjoning room with a solid wall between it and the kitchen.

There are no new developments here today in the sensational case against Dr. David S. Rowland and bride for the poisoning of Mrs. Rowland's former husband, C. R. Strange, and against Rowland for the murder of his little son. There was considerable stir during the early morning occasioned by a report that flew about the city that Dr. Rowland had committed suicide last night in the Vance county jail. However, telegrams from Henderson soon disproved the rumor. There was another report that Mrs. Rowland, who is at Henderson to be near her husband being out on $2,000 cash bond, had "broken down" and made a full confession as to the poisoning of her former husband. This was also soon authoritatively denied.

The analysis of the stomach of C. R. Strange and Dr. Rowland's little son in search of poisons that would have caused their death is progressing but it will be several days before any statement from the chemists can be procured. The bond of Mrs. Rowland is returnable June 3, but the purpose is to have the preliminary hearing in the meantime if the evidence as to the poisons is secured before the return day.

There will be a general change in the State Department of Education ere long, through the retirement of Professor C. L. Coon as chief clerk to State Superintendent J. Y. Joyner, to become superintendent of the Wilson graded schools and of Mr. R. D. W. Connor as secretary of the special tax and other special work of the department to devote his entire time to work as secretary of the State Historical Commission under the enlarged scope of its work which will be especially the searching out, editing and publishing data of North Carolina history along the line of the work done in the past by Colonel W. L. Saunders and Chief Justice Walter Clark in the Colonial and State Records, Mr. Connor, under the direction of the Commission, to bring these on down through succeeding years of the States history.

OPERA SEASON AT BEACH

Mr. Mansfeld is Encouraged at the Outlook—About Half of Required Subscriptions Are Taken—Letter From Booking Agency.

Mr. Robert A. Mansfield, who is behind the movement inaugurated a week ago for a season of ten weeks of comic opera in The Casino, Wrightsville Beach, is somewhat encouraged at the outlook for his venture, though there are but nine days left until the subscriptions close. Canvassers have been making a round of some of those likely to be interested, and Mr. Mansfeld announces that $2,680 of the $5,000 subscriptions required for the ten weeks have been made. As there are but nine days left in which subscribers may make their deposits of $10 each with Mr. J. W. Yates, at The Atlantic National Bank, it would be well for all interested to attend to this matter at once. Subscribers will be given preference in the reservation of seats, and as a big rush is likely, especially during the first week, it makes the subscription offer especially pleasing.

The list of operas decided upon by Mr. Mansfield is as follows: Boccacio, Fra Diavolo, Beggar Student, Merry War, Red Hussar, Bohemian Girl, Three Black Cloaks, Black Hussar, Florodora, Queen's Lace Handkerchief, Mikado, Olivette. Then there are twenty operas that can be selected from for the ten weeks. As respects the company, the following letter from Mr. Mansfeld's booking agents in New York will be read with interest:

"New York, May 20, 190.

"Mr. Robert Mansfeld, Wilmington, N. C.

"Dear Sir: Your letter of May 16, received today. Now, in regard to Summer Opera Company, of 26 artists, including conductor, will say that I can give you a first class company, furnishing opera (no royalty), for nine hundred ($900) dollars per week, that would include 10 chorus women and 8 chorus men, giving stage performances with conductor.

"In addition you are to pay fares from and back to New York, also express on wardrobe each week, both ways. As soon as I hear from you I will submit principals and conductor.

"I also enclose you printed list of opera you can select from for the 10 weeks. I can arrange to rehearse company here and then give you one dress rehearsal with your scenery to give a perfect performance, beginning with your opening night.

"You could be ready to open about June 20. It must be distinctly understood that all contracts must be guaranteed by cash security, and when contracts are drawn up, I want $25 to defray current expenses. If these terms are satisfactory, let me hear from you at once.

Yours,
"J. A. B."

68 CARS OF STRAWBERRIES

Movement Reaching Old-Time Standard, But Prices Decline.

The movement of strawberries through South Rocky Mount on Tuesday broke all records for the season and was almost up to the proportions of other years, consisting of 68 solid cars by refrigerator line and about 1,000 crates by express. Pittsburg received the bulk of the shipments amounting to ten cars, while New York and Philadelphia received six each, Newark, Boston and Buffalo, four each; Worcester, Scranton, Utica, Syracuse, Elmira and Albany, three each, with two cars each to Scranton, Erie, Wilkesbarre and several other points, the distribution being very wide. A dozen points received shipments of one car each.

The prices are rather declining Tuesday's market at Syracuse being quoted 15 to 16 cents; Pittsburg, 12 1-2 to 15; Boston 10 to 15; New York, 12 to 13 and Philadelphia, 8 to 12 cents per quart. The berries now going forward are said to be very fine quality but the season for them is rather late.

Moonlight to Ft. Caswell.

A delightful trip is assured in the moonlight excursion tomorrow evening on the steamer Wilmington to Fort Caswell and return under the auspices of Circle No. 5, of Fifth Street M. E. Church. The steamer will leave at 8 o'clock, proceeding straight to Caswell, where a stop of half an hour or more will be made for the benefit of any who may desire to attend any part of the benefit to be given at the post for the children of the husband and wife who met such a tragic death there a short time ago. Those who attend the benefit, going to Caswell earlier in the day, will find the excursion an excellent opportunity to return to the city without loss of further time. Music will be furnished on board the boat by the Acme Male Quartette, and also at the post by the Artillery Band. Refreshments will be served on the steamer going and returning. The public is invited and is guaranteed a pleasant outing. The managers of the excursion are Mrs. J. S. Funchess and Mrs. J. C. Kendall.

The concert by the singing class from the Oxford Orphanage at the Academy of Music last night, with the incidental production of "The Rescue of the Princess Winsome" by charming little folks of Wilmington, was a delightful affair in every respect and a very large audience was present. The children, both the visitors and the home talent, acquitted themselves most creditably and their efforts were rewarded with unstinted applause throughout.

The class from the orphanage reached the city on its tour of Eastern towns and cities from Burgaw yesterday morning and were most delightfully entertained during the day, first by the Elks at an elegant luncheon in the Temple, on North Front street, later at the homes of Wilmington friends and still later on a delightful trolley party to the beach as guests of the Consolidated Company. Prosecutor to Pay Costs.

In Justice Furlong's court yesterday afternoon the charge of an assault with a deadly weapon against young Lee Bordeaux was investigated. Bordeaux was charged with heaving a brick at a youth named Garvey, striking him squarely in the face, on South Front street about ten days ago. Bordeaux had his physiognomy disfigured the worst ever seen. In court yesterday Bordeaux was represented by Herbert McClammy, Esq., and eight witnesses testified that at the time Bordeaux heaved the brick, Garvey was after him with a long stick. The case was dismissed and the prosecutor was taxed with the costs.

EAST CAROLINA DIOCESE

Wilmington clergy and lay delegates who have been attending the annual council of the East Carolina Episcopal Diocese, in session since Sunday with St. Mary's Church, Kinston, N. C., returned to the city yesterday and all report a most pleasant and profitable gathering. Bishop Strange presided and the opening feature was the consecration of the handsome new church of the parish, of which Rev. John H. Griffith, Jr., is the rector. Among the Wilmington people in attendance upon the council sessions besides Bishop Strange were Captain T. D. Meares, treasurer of the Diocese; Rev. R. W. Hogue, Colonel John W. Atkinson, Colonel W. L. DeRosset and Mr. William Calder, of St. James; Rev. James Carmichael, D. D., of St. John's; Rev. A. W. Seabreaze, of St. Paul's, and Rev. Thos. P. Noe and Mr. James H. Burriss, from the Church of the Good Shepherd. The latter parish was admitted at this session of the council, a formality that will be especialy pleasing to members of that congregation.

Perhaps the most important action taken at the session of the council was a resolution recommending to the General Council, which meets in Richmond the coming October, to place all negro parishes under missionary jurisdictions with negro Bishops over them. The same action was taken last week by the North Carolina Diocese in session at Tarboro except it was not specified that the Bishops were to be negroes. Rev. E. R. Bennett, of this city, was one of the champions of this resolution, declaring on the floor of the council that he believed the arrangement would be more satisfactory to the colored people and also to the whites.

With few exceptions the standing committees of the Council are the same next year as during the past year. The election of deputies to the general convention in Richmond was entered into but an adjournment was taken before the list of clerical deputies was completed. The clericals elected were Rev. N. Harding, Dr. R. B. Drane and Dr. Carmichael, the fourth and the alternates to be selected later. The lay delegates elected are W. G. Lamb, William Calder, B. R. Huske, and Mr. Roberts. Supplementary lay deputies are Colonel J. W. Atkinson, W. B. Shepherd, R. R. Cotton and George C. Royal.

The Council adjourned to meet next year at Elizabeth City, N. C.

WELCOME FOR VETERANS

(Richmond Times-Dispatch.)

The North Carolina Society of Richmond, composed of some of the leading men of the city, who have been adopted by Virginia from the Old North State, is preparing to do the handsome thing by the veterans of North Carolina who come to the Confederate Reunion.

Dr. J. Allison Hodges, President of the Society, says it is the desire of the organization to give a warm welcome to every veteran from North Carolina and to make the entertainment one of the notable features of the reunion week.

The North Carolina State headquarters during the reunion will be at Sanger Hall, on Seventh street, between Broad and Marshall, and it is here that the entertainment will take place, the time being fixed for Friday evening, May 31st, the second day of the reunion, when it is estimated that there will be several thousand North Carolina veterans in the city.

Governor Robert B. Glenn, of North Carolina, will make the principal address, and Major-General Julian S. Carr, commanding the North Carolina Division, will also take part. The full programme has not been completed, but will consist of music, vocal and instrumental, speeches and a buffet luncheon.

The committee in charge is sending out notices to local papers throughout North Carolina, asking that every veteran from that State to reserve this evening for a great "Tarheel" gathering.

The reception committee consists of Dr. J. Allison Hodges, chairman; S. T. Morgan, Captain E. H. Lea, Mr. Edmund Strudwick and Mr. C. R. Guy.

The committee on arrangements are Mr. R. S. Tuck, chairman; Mr. J. Kent Rawley, Mr. B. H. Ellington, Mr. G. B. White, Mr. W. H. Hefner and Mr. C .E. Borden.

DECISION RESERVED

Hearing of Charges Against Trash Cart Superintendent By Committee Last Night.

THREE SPECIFICATIONS

Intoxication and False Returns on Pay Rolls Charged—Defense That No Moneys were Misappropriated—Further Sitting

The Sanitary Committee of the Board of Aldermen was in session an hour and a half last night in the Mayor's office at the City Hall, investigating charges of official misconduct on the part of Superintendent L. F. Harper, in charge of the trash and garbage carts in the street cleaning department of the city. The charges make two specifications of intoxication on May 16th and 17th and a third of making false returns to the Treasury Department on the pay roll of employes under his jurisdicition, converting an excess of moneys drawn to his own uses. Mr. Harper was given trial last night only on the latter and more serious charges of misappropriation of funds. He was represented by Herbert McClammy, Esq., who stated after the hearing that he would ask for a complete exoneration of his client, of which he is confident. The committee, after hearing all the testimony and having the same transcribed by Miss Estella Shrier, stenographer, stated that it would hear argument of counsel later today and would then render its decision. No time was set as to a hearing of the charges of intoxication. Supt. Harper has been suspended from the city's employ for several days, pending an investigation of the charges by the committee.

The committee assembled about 8:30 o'clock, though the hour appointed was 8 o'clock. Chairman W. H. Yopp and Alderman K. W. Jewell were the only members of the committee present, Alderman Karr not being in attendance. There were some 12 or 15 witnesses and spectators on hand to hear the trial. At the outset Mr. McClammy was presented with a written copy of the charges which he read at the request of Chairman Yopp, who stated that City Attorney Marsden Bellamy, Jr., was present to represent the committee in its investigation. Mr. McClammy put the prescution on the defensive at the outset by admitting false returns on the pay rolls, but denying that the money so drawn had been converted to Harper's own use, and maintaining that while on the face of the returns there was apparent irregularities, every cent of the money so drawn by the defendant had been applied to the uses of the city. More specifically, Mr. McClammy said that the defendant would admit that the pay rolls returned to the Treasury Department had contained the names of persons not employed by the city, and that the name of John Taylor appeared thereon for six weeks, when as a matter of fact he was an employe of the Consolidated Company and not of the city, but that Harper had acted not without authority in what he did.

The prosecution began its testimony with one D. G. Benson, white, a comparative stranger in the city, who had worked on the cart force for several weeks. The first week he said he made but one day and received his money; the second week he received $5; the third week he received in his envelope $7.50, when he had made but one day and was entitled to only $1.25. He told Mr. White in the Treasurer's office that he had made but one day and gave him back the money except what was coming to him. He went to the stables and saw Mr. Harper about the excess. Mr. Harper told him that the money was all right and went back with him to Mr. White and received the whole amount of $7.50, turning over to Mr. Harper all but the $1.25 that was coming to him. The next week he was entitled to only $5 but received $7.50 in his pay envelope from the time put in by Mr. Harper. The residue he turned over to Mr. Harper. The next week he was entitled to only $2.50, but he received $5 and kept the $2.50, which he said he then had in his pocket and wanted to know what to do with it. Cross-examined by Mr. McClammy, witness said he didn't know anything about making up time for a Mr. Futch and drawing all together. He also said that Mr. Harper told him that if anybody asked him about the overplus in what he had drawn, to tell them that he owed Mr. Harper. Mr. Harper denied this, stating that he told Mr. Benson to say that the money was drawn for another party.

Col. White was next introduced and told of the transactions between Mr. Harper and Mr. Benson, stating that Mr. Harper did say to him that he had got Futch's and E. Williams' time mixed. Col. White said that the name of John Taylor had appeared on the pay roll for eight or nine weeks. There were two John Taylors, one Jno. and another Jno. K. Taylor. He was shown a note, ostensibly written by the wife of Mr. Taylor, asking that Mr. Harper be paid the money that was coming to Mr. Taylor. This was directed to Mr. Harper, who later admitted having written a part of the note himself and having gotten a boy at the stables to write the balance. Mr. White would not qualify

NORFOLK'S KICK.

The Norfolk Landmark resents the numerous reports in circulation to the detriment of the Jamestown Exposition, not that the Exposition is itself not worth taking in, but that soem get rich quick people make it too expensive for visitors to make the trip. Our esteemed Norfolk contemporary says:

"One of the best known business men in Norfolk, who is interested in the Jamestown Exposition only as a public spirited citizen, calls The Landmark's attention to correspondence between himself and a friend in North Carolina. The business man expresses great indignation at the slanderous stories that are being circulated, in spite of denial and disproof, about the difficulty of obtaining reasonable accommodation here for Exposition visitors.

"This matter was threshed out pretty thoroughly before the Exposition opened. There was then reason to fear that extortion might be attempted, but discussion of the subject and the common sense of those who fix the prices soon changed the outlook; and now it is simply untrue that visitors to the Exposition cannot obtain good food and lodging at reasonable prices. The person who is foolish may be exploited by somebody, as he would be exploited anywhere else in the world. No one with eyes and average intelligence will have reason to complain of undue expense for accommodation, if he comes here now. At all times, the visitor of discretion will engage his accommodations ahead.

"The business man to whom we have referred showed The Landmark the damaging reports in circulation about the gouging of Exposition visitors. The friend said that he desired to visit the Exposition, with his family, but was afraid to do so because of these rumors. He asked the Norfolk man, as a special favor, to see of accommodation could be secured. Of course, the Norfolkian at once wrote, giving details about the cost of accommodations and vigorously denying the slanders in circulation. The prices which were quoted to the North Carolinian were reasonable and satisfactory.

"The thousands of people who come here and get good treatment at proper prices should follow the example of Mr. Howison, of Richmond, and give the public the benefit of their experience. The trouble is that one man who has made a goose of himself and has paid more than he ought to have paid, when a little intelligence would have protected him, will go away and make more fuss than a thousand people who are satisfied. It is like the grasshopper under a leaf and the great herd of cattle grazing in the field. You would think from the noise that the grasshopper was larger than the whole herd. Gross injustice is being done our community by the statement that extortionate prices prevail. A square deal is all we want from the outside, but we are not getting it to any alarming extent."

Visitors to the Exposition have to take The Landmark's word for it that extortion is not practiced against people who go to the Exposition. No doubt in some instances there are unreasonable charges, but The Landmark means to deny that the thng is either systematic or general.

The fact is, The Landmark is denying the same kind of reports that get out about all Exposition cities. There are plenty of people who will take advantage of others, Exposition or no Exposition, but as a matter of fact visitors expect to get it in the neck to a greater or less extent during an Exposition. It must be remembered that the people of an Exposition city are more or less up against it themselves when it comes to getting gouged. The price of labor and help necessarily goes out of all bounds, rents are generally abnormally high, and so are about all things else. Everbody gets "frenzied," and you can't get anybody to turn around for less than a dollar. However, people will be glad to learn from The Landmark that the gouging stories are to a large extent slanderous.

NEW SPECIMEN OF REPUBLICANISM.

Speaking of the new Senator elected in Wisconsin recently, the Philadelphia Record (Dem.) says:

"A millionaire in the United States Senate is no novelty. But the like of the new Wiconsin specimen—Isaac Stephenson—has never before appeared. He favors tariff revision, more rigid penal statutes for regulating corporations, a Federal income tax, a Federal tax on inheritances, and effective child labor law and the popular election of United States Senators. To make the anomaly more striking, Mr. Stephenson opposes subsides. And yet he declares he is a Republican."

When Senator Stephenson gets to Washington he will find himself lonesome on the Republican side. His colleagues will regard him as a Republican only in name. If he shows signs of being for the initiative and the referendum the Republican side will know that something is wrong with the enator from Wisconsin. At any rate if his politics are as the Record describes it will lay him liable to suspicion.

THE MAGAZINES.

Lippincott's Monthly Magazine for June has been received. It is an old favorite with readers and its features are ever well designed to make it popular. Its literary character is distinctive, and the current number affords great entertainment in the variety of novels, stories, poetry, miscellaneous articles, humor, etc. The table of contents is a veritable argosy of good things, notable among which is a dramatic production entitled "A Princess of Virginia, by Kate Tucker Goode. It is needless to say that it refers to Pocahontas, and its pretentiousness can be realized when it is stated that the style is classic and the play covers 33 pages. Lippincott's is on sale at 25 cents per copy, and is sent a year for $2.50. Address J. B .Lippincott Co., Philadelphia.

McCall's Magazine for June is a gem, and the ladies will be delighted with its contents. The cover design is an artistic portrature of the lovely June bride, and as to contents there are the latest plates and articles concerning the Paris and New York fashions. There is also the usual amount of charming reading matter, and the customary variety of useful art and home science matter. The subscription price per year is 50 cents, and the price per copy is 5 cents. Address the McCall Company, 236 to 246 West Thirty-Seventh Street, New York.

—A Kansas City woman took steps to secure a divorce twenty-four hours after she had been married. It doesn't take some women very long to find out that they have been gold-bricked. —Washington Post.

—We hope that Elder Hemphill, of The Charleston News and Courier, will read The Wilmington Star, of Tuesday, May 21, and take to heart the way the people of that town religiously celebrate the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence every time the 20th of May comes around. The two best majors in the South, and the two most lovable men, are Major Bernard, of The Star, and Major Hemphill, of the News and Courier. We wish the former would take the heretic in hand for a brief spell and give us a chance to look after other matters.—Charlotte Chronicle.

—Senator Rayner, of Maryland, who stands in the first rank of Democratic statesmen in the Union, has just given the New York "Herald" a signed statement of reasons why the nomination of Mr. Bryan for the Presidency next year is highly impolitic and unpromising. He is exceedingly convincing. The Bryan platform is impossible. That is reason enough. State Chairman Conners, of New York, announces a conference of nineteen Governors (count 'em) and other Democrats from all parts of the United States next November to take into consideration the state of the party with reference to the ensuing national campaign. These things are not conclusive of anything, it is true, but they do show there is a feeling of unrest in the ranks of the Democratic party over the prospect of another campaign and a necessarily hopeless one under the Bryan leadership, which tends ever more to radicalism and away from anything that was ever known for Democracy until it was branded with that name by Mr. Bryan and the semi-Socialists that form his especial corps of political shouters.—Buffalo News (Rep.)

—Equally Futile. — Raynor — I've made up my mind to take the weather as it comes. It doesn't do any good to complain. Shyne—Certainly not. It's as useless as it is to register a complaint at the gas office.—Chicago Tribune.

THE REAL TEST

There is only one test by which to judge of the efficiency of any article and that is by its ability to do that which it is intended to do. Many hair vigors may look nice and smell nice, but the point is—do they eradicate Dandruff and stop falling hair?

No, they do not, but Herpicide does, because it goes to the root of the evil and kills the germ that attacks the papilla from whence the hair gets its life.

Letters from prominent people every[illegible] are daily proving that Newbro's [illegible] stands the "test of use."

It is a delightful dressing, clear, pure and free from oil or grease.

FACTS, NOT FICTION.

Experiences of Wilmington Citizens Are Easily Proven to Be Facts.

The most superficial investigation will prove that the following statement from a resident of Wilmington is true. Read it and compare evidence from Wilmington people with testimony of strangers living so far away you cannot investigate the facts of the case. Many more citizens of Wilmington will endorse our claims.

C. S. Hollen, printer on the "Morning Messenger," formerly residing at 419 Grace St., Wilmington, N. C., says: "I had used several remedies to get relief from itching piles, but without any good results. Learning of Doan's Ointment, I obtained it at Bellamy's drug store. It acted immediately and proved so effective that I am entirely cured of the affliction. I found it to be an excellent remedy."

DINGLEY TARIFF OUT OF DATE

Republicans Demand Its Revision. President Roosevelt Will Be Urged to Make Declaration. Leaders Convinced.

(Washington Post.)

New York, May 20.—A Washington dispatch to the New York Tribune says: It is by no means improbable that the President ma yurge on Congress in his next annual message the advisability of immediate revision of the Dingley tariff. The extent to which such a course is being urged on him would, were it generally known, occasion much surprise, for some of the most conservative statesmen, and, too, some of the stanchest protectionists, have expressed the view that it might be wise to deal with this troublesome subject next Winter.

Senator Allison, talking recently for publication, said:

"In the next campaign, and possibly in the next session of Congress, the tariff is certain to be an important issue."

Senator Spooner, as will be recalled, in debate with Sen. Aldrich near the close of the recent session, expressed his conviction that the time had come when the tariff should be readjusted, and Senator Aldrich himself, although he has been termed "the high priest of protection," believes that a number of the schedules should be lowered and many of them altered to suit changed conditions.

Two years ago last February, at a conference called on this subject at the White House, Mr. Aldrich voted for tariff revision, as did Senator Allison, and only the determined "standpatism" of Speaker Cannon and his allies in the House prevented the President urging revision on the last Congress in its first session. Senator Lodge is another leader in the Senate who regards tariff revision as all important, and Senator Spooner's successor has already announced his belief that the duties should be lowered. Senator Hale is probably the only "roob-ribbed standpatter" in the Senate.

From all parts of the West comes the information that a change in the schedules is regarded as imperative, and even certain representatives of the steel industry have declared that they will no longer oppose the inevitable, while the demand for lower duties in certain parts of New England is well known.

The tariff programme which has been most extensively discussed in executive and legislative conferences in Washington, and which has many advocates, consists of a definite pledge to be incorporated in the next Republican national platform, to call Congress in special session soon after March 4, 1909, for the express purpose of revising the existing tariff schedules. From a political point of view this programme has much to recommend it. Practically, it has the advantage that the members of the next House of Representatives would then, presumably be elected under a pledge to carry such revsion into effect, and the influential "standpatism" in the lower chamber would be powerless to disregard the recommendations of the Executive, the will of the upper House and probably the will of the people.

The only alternative to this propromme is for the President to urge upon Congress the necessity of tariff revision in his next annual message, and prompt and effective action by the coming Congress. It is between these alternatives that the President must, before he prepares his next annual message, make his choice.

Personally, the President has long been convinced that the tariff should be readjusted, and now the only problem which confronts him is the question of expediency. The most powerful argument against pledging the party to tariff revision in the next national platform, a revision which could not be accomplished until practically a year later ,is that the prospect of a change of the tariff schedules entertained so long in advance would have a strong tendency to interfere with business and might prove gravely inimical to the general prosperity. This argument has proposed tariff revision to the party great earnestness when, in the past, he has proposed tariff revision to the party leaders, and he appreciates that there is force in it.

My Best Friend.

Alexander Benton, who lives on Rural Route 1, Fort Edward, N. Y., says: "Dr. King's New Discovery is my best earthly friend. It cured me of asthma six years ago. The first bottle ended the terrible cough, and this accomplished, the other symptoms left one by one, until she was perfectly well. Dr. King's New Discovery's power over coughs and colds is simply marvelous." No other remedy has ever equaled it. Fully guaranteed by R. R. Bellamy, Druggist. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

HIS LEG BROKEN

Mr. A. B. Cowan, in charge of the city circulation of the Morning Star, fell from a street car on Princess, between Second and Third streets, last night about 9 o'clock, suffering a painful fracture of the left thigh as the result of which he will be laid up for several weeks. Mr. Cowan was on his way home and seeing a car standing on the track nearly in front of the old Court House, he naturally thought it was bound for the junction at Front and Princess where he expected to transfer for his home in the northern part of the city on account of the extensive track improvement on the lower end of Princess street. However, a car had been derailed and the cars were not running any further toward the junction than Second street. Mr. Cowan boarded the car from what he thought was the rear, but as the car was bound the other way, when the motorman started up Mr. Cowan saw his mistake and jumped off backwards. He was thrown heavily to the pavement on his back and his leg was caught by the running board or a part of the truck. It was fractured near the hip. Officer E. Piner and friends in the vicinity picked the injured man up and sent him to the hospital where Dr. A. H. Harriss gave him attention.

FIREMEN'S TOURNEY.

President McNeill Here for Conference Yesterday—Wilmington.

Capt. Jas. D. McNeill, president of the North Carolina State Firemen's Association, spent yesterday in the city in conference with Secretary W. C. VonGlahn and Fire Chief Charles Schnibben, with reference to the Inter-State tournament and annual meeting of the Association that will be held in this city in August, most probably the 6th, 7th, 8th and 9th. Capt. McNeill, Mr. VonGlahn and Chief Schnibben had a long conference with General Manager Skelding of the Consolidated Company, during the day, and received every assurance of the co-operation of the company in the entertainment of the large number of firemen who are expected here from this and other States during the tourney. It is said that the Consolidated Company will donate $500 to the prize list, which will be supplemented by Wilmington merchants. A number of the volunteer fire companies of the State, it is said, will come to Wilmington prepared to camp out during the big meet.

Capt. McNeill left last night for Richmond to make a business visit and to work up interest in the tournament.

FOR CLERK AND CARRIER.

Fourteen Applicants Before Local Board Yesterday—Positions.

A civil service examination for clerk and carrier in the postoffice service was conducted here yesterday by the Local Board of Civil Service Examiners. The examination embraced a variety of subjects, and the questions were submitted by Mr. J. D. Doscher, Jr., secretary, assisted by Mr. T. L. Vines, a second member of the Board. The applicants were all male, and were fourteen in number. Seven of these were white and seven were colored. The examination took place in the postoffice building and lasted practically all day. The papers will be forwarded to the District Examining Board in Washington, and the list of eligibles will be forwarded here from which list vacancies in the service will be filled according to highest qualification.

LOCAL DOTS.

—The schooner Nellie W. Craig was cleared yesterday by Captain C. D. Maffitt with cargo of 480,000 feet of lumber consigned by the Angola Lumber Company to parties in New York.

—The schooner Bayard Hopkins, which has been discharging cargo of coal for the Wilmington, Southport and Little River Company at Southport, cleared yesterday, light, for Georgetown, S. C.

—Fire on the roof of a horse stable at the residence of Mr. Joe Canady, 808 Dawson street, called the Fire Department out at 9:55 o'clock yesterday morning in response to an alarm from Box 55. The damage was only trifling.

—Joe Bond and Joe Byrd, colored drivers, were arrested yesterday afternoon by Officer Leon George, the one for reckless driving at Front and Princess streets and the other for trotting around a corner at Front and Market. They will be given trial before the Mayor at noon today.

—The loss of a black satchel, containing valuable papers, somewhere on the road between Burgaw and Montague, is advertised in the Business Locals column of the Star today. The finder will be rewarded for return to the party advertising the loss.

—Mr. Albert Rothschild, through Mr. Frank Herbst, the local agent, has purchased one of the handsome Maxwell runabouts, 14 horse power, which is the favorite type of automobile in Wilmington. The machine will be an exact duplicate of the one recently sold to Dr. F. H. Russell and it will be delivered in a few weeks.

—Will Richardson, colored, was fined $10 and costs in the municipal court yesterday for an assault upon Josephine Figford, a colored woman of bad repute. Some were of the opinion that Richardson should have been presented a gold medal, but the Mayor, of course, had to observe due regard for the majesty of the law.

—St. James' Sunday School will enjoy its annual May-day outing at Mrs. Wright's place on Wrightsville Sound on Saturday. Twenty wagonettes and other vehicles have been engaged and the party is looking forward to the event with much pleasure. There will be a May Queen crowing, baseball and other interesting features. Mr. S. M. Boatwright, superintendent of the School, will be in charge of the outing

—The young girl from the Wheeler family, recently arrested in connection with a brawl at a restaurant kept by her parents near foot of Market street, has been taken in hand by the Salvation Army and last night she was sent by Adjutant and Mrs. Yates, of the Wilmington post, to the Rescue Home in Philadelpphia. It will be recalled that the evidence in the trial showed that the girl was made an associate of negroes at dances that were carried on in the restaurant kept by Wheeler and his wife.

Little River Telephone Company.

An enthusiastic meeting of those interested in the building of a telephone line from Little River, S. C. to Southport at which latter point there will be connection with the Brunswick Telephone Company's line, was held in this city yesterday and arrangements were made for putting the new connection in operation within 30 days. The new line will reach an important territory tributary to Wilmington and the gentlemen behind the movement assure the public of the best of service. Exchanges will be maintained at Calabash, Little River, Shallotte and Supply. The Wilmington, Southport and Little River Company, the lumber companies at Little River and Messrs. W. H. and J. A. Stone are largely interested in the new enterprise.

DELIGHTFUL RECEPTION

Pleasant Affair Last Evening in Abbie Chadbourn Hall.

Following an interesting and most helpful meeting at the First Presbyterian Church at which Rev. H. W. Stough preached a spplendid sermon and Mrs. Strough charmed her hearers with several vocal selections, the large congregation last night was invited into the Abbie Chadbourn Memorial Hall where a charming reception was given by the ladies of the congregation. Dr. Wells, the pastor, Dr. Stough and wife, Dr. McClure and wife and Rev. J. S. Crowley and wife formed the receiving party and all present were delighted with the entertainment of the evening. Mrs. Stough was heard in several musical numbers again and a course of dainty refreshments was served.

as an expert on handwriting and the note was withheld for the time being.

City Clerk and Treasurer Fowler was next introduced and testified as to the circumstances of Harper's bringing the note to the office and having received the money thereon, this purporting to be signed by Mrs. Taylor, the money first being paid to O. Croom and later by admission being paid to Harper.

Mr. Jno. K. Taylor was next introduced and admitted not having been in the employe of the city in a long time, saying that he was now employed by the Consolidated Company. He had not been employed by Harper during the time stated, but had let Mr. Harper have his team for work in the trash removing of the city. Mr. Harper paid him his money, $1.25 per day, and he presumed he drew it from the city.

At the conclusion of Mr. Taylor's testimony Mr. Bellamy renewed his motion to introduce the note purporting to have been written by Mrs. Taylor. City Clerk and Treasurer Fowler prsented the note. He would not qualify as an expert but was acquainted with the handwriting of Mr. Harper and believed that he had written the note. With this testimony the prosecution closed its case.

Mr. McClammy introduced in Harper's behalf the defendant himself. Mr. Harper had the charges read to him and made a full statement of the whole affair. He said that a mule had been crippled in the department; the people were howling, as he expressed it, to have trash removed, and he simply could not do the work with the teams at his disposal. He went to Alderman W. E. Yopp, who was then chairman of the Sanitary Committee, before the change of administration, and he laid the facts before him. He told Mr. Yopp that by laying off one of the ditching laborers that a team could be hired in the place of the man and the transfer could be made without an extra appropriation, which Mr. Yopp told him was already made up and the Board of Audit and Finance would, doubtless, not agree to anything further. Mr. Yopp told him he saw no objection to this and he went ahead and paid for the team. Mr. Harper was subjected to a rigid cross-examination by Mr. Bellamy and admitted that teams had been hired from several, including himself, and the money had been drawn and paid for in this way, as there were plenty of members of the force knew. He had never misappropriated a cent and acted this way only to meet the demands of residents all over the town to clear the streets of trash.

Mr. W. E. Yopp, member of the former Board of Aldermen and chairman of the Sanitary Committee at that time, corroborated Mr. Harper as to the arrangement that had been suggested and adopted as to the hire of teams.

Mr. W. H. Yopp, now chairman of the Sanitary Committee, made a statement of extra teams that had been hired since he came into office, and also said Mr. Harper had told him of the arrangement that had been in effect in the matter. The singular part of the matter was that Mr. Yopp appeared both as a witness and as chairman of the committee making the investigation.

Mr. Harper proved a good character by several, including City Clerk and Treasurer Fowler and former Alderman W. E. Yopp.

Capt. T. D. Meares, clerk to the Board of Audit and Finance, also made a brief statement in connection with the affair, and at the conclusion of this, the committee announced its purpose to hear argument and render a decision later.

Northrop-MacClintock.

Friends in this city and elsewhere received handsomely engraved invitations yesterday, reading as follows: "Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Northrop request the pleasure of your company at the wedding reception of their daughter, Emma Bellamy, and Mr. Howard MacClintock, Tuesday afternoon, the fourth of June, 1907, from half after 5 until half after 7, southeast corner Fifth and Dock streets, Wilmington, North Carolina."

Special Service at Immanuel.

A special service will be held tonight at 8 o'clock at Immanuel Presbyterian Church. Rev. J. S. Crowley, the pastor, will preach and eight persons will be received into membership. The public is cordially invited.

—Some papers are still preaching about the harm done by the minister who married the Coreys. And yet more harm might have been done by leaving them to roam at large.—Washington Post.

—Lumberton Robesonian: Mr. Mark Morgan has purchased the interest of Col. W. M. Jones in the North Carolina Military Academy at Red Springs. He has rented the property to Col. Jones, who will continue the school.

—Asheville Special, 18th, to Raleigh Evening Times: In order to encourage and revive the almost lost art of hand weaving among the mountain women of the Blue Ridge mountains, Mrs. George W. Vanderbilt has taken to weaving homespun. Mrs. Vanderbilt appeared in Asheville a few days ago in a yellow homespun gown. It started a fad for homespuns among the women of the town and has resulted in just what Mrs. Vanderbilt has wished it to result in—good business for the women of the mountains. Mrs. Vanderbilt's gown cost her $25. Yesterday she placed it on exhibition at Biltmore among the Biltmore estate exhibits to go to the Jamestown Exposition. Mrs. Vanderbilt has placed orders for a number of other gowns for herself.

DEMAND TARIFF REVISION.

Significant Action of National Association of Manufacturers.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

New York, May 22.—The National Association of Manufacturers of the United States went on record today as in favor of a revision of the tariff at the earliest opportunity and the negotiation of more reciprocity treaties.

A lively debate preceded the vote, which was upon the acceptance of the report of the committee on tariff and reciprocity. The committee based its recommendations on a poll of the 3,000 members of the association. Of the total number replying, 55 per cent. declared for immediate revision, while 20 per cent. expressed a "hands off" sentiment. Eight per cent. believed that the time for revision had not arrived and the other 1 per cent. expressed indifference or made noncommittal answers. An effort to table the report was defeated, and it was adopted as reported.

The mass of resolutions adopted by the association, on this, the closing day of its convention, included endorsement of the open shop, industrial education, the improvement of the consular service, commendation of the National River and Harbor Congress, urging the President to withhold his approval of the new German agreement until the testimony of practical producers could be obtained, regarding the effects upon domestic labor and industry likely to follow the customs administrattive changes in favor of "export values," and opposition to all illegal combinations, either of capital or labor.

This resolution was given added force by the convention's declared determination to raise $1,500,000 to carry out a campaign of education concerning dictatorial combinations. Of this campaign of education President Van Cleave, following today's session, said:

"We shall endeavor to assist in educating the public in industrial righteousness. We shall be just as ready to oppose unlawful acts by combinations of capital as those of combinations of labor. We believe in industrial liberty, and we are opposed to all forms of industrial oppression. And if anybody nudertakes to compel any one to submit to such oppression, we shall endeavor to assist the party so assailed. If a man threatens me with a gun, I certainly don't intend to remain quiet. We shall in particular endeavor to sustain public officials who try to enforce the laws. And wherever murder or violence is resorted, wherever public officials are threatened and subjected to outrage, we shall do what we can, whether the official in question be a judge, a governor, a sheriff, a mayor, a policeman, or a juror."

Capt. Henry A. Castle, of St. Paul, formerly sixth aulitor of the United States Treasury, in a speech on "Needed Postal Reforms," criticised the management of the Postoffice Department, who, he said, should be placed on a business basis.

Charles A. Prouty, a member of the Interstate Commerce Commission, advocated direct control of the government over the capital accounts of the railroads.

BOOKER WASHINGTON SPEAKS

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Salisbury, N. C., May 22.—A bright picture of the opportunities of the negro race was drawn today by Booker T. Washington, principal of Tuskegee Normal and Industrial Institute, who addressed an audience of 3,000 people, 500 of whom were whites, at the Livingston College commencement exercises. "I believe," said Washington, "that while the world may pity a crying, whining race, it seldom respects it. Let constructive be the dominant note among us in every section of America. Let us not make the mistake of keeping the dark and disappointing side of life before the youth of our race. Just now what the race wants is not a vision of despair, but a vision of triumph, not a picture of oppression, but an inspiration to overcome difficulties. The race is not losing friends in America nor will it do so, as long as we continue to prove ourselves worthy. We must frankly face the fact that the great body of our people are to dwell in the South and any policy that does not seek to harmonize the two races and cement them is unwise, and dangerous. The negro, the Irishman, the Jew, the German, the Italian, residing in the North and West put forth every effort to cultivate and retain the friendship of their neighbors, and the negro in the South should pursue the same policy. The indiscriminate condemnation of all white people on the part of any member of our race is a suicidal, and dangerous policy. We must learn to discriminate. We have strong friends both in the South and in the North and we should emphasize and magnify the efforts of our friends more than that of those who wish us evil.

"We are making tremendous progress materially, educationally, morally and religiously. We own today, mainly in the South, an acreage that is equal to the combined acerage of the kingdoms of Belgium and Holland Don't be afraid to face difficulties. For myself I would not care to live in an age where there was no weak portion of the human race to be helped, and lifted up. I would not care to live in an age when there was no serious, hard and perplexing problems to be met and solved."

A Narrow Escape.

G. W. Cloyd, a merchant, of Plunk, Mo., had a narrow escape four years ago, when he ran a jimson bur into his thumb. He says: "The doctor wanted to amputate it but I would not consent. I bought a box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve and that cured the dangerous wound." 25c at R. R. Bellamy, Druggist.

ROOSEVELT JOKES VIRGINIANS.

Pleasant Incident While President Was Returning to Washington.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Richmond, Va., May 22.—At Manassas this afternoon the President's train made a brief stop on its way from Pine Knot to Washington and Mr. Roosevelt came to the rear platform of his car in response to a call from several men who were at the depot. Major James R. Purcell introduced himself and then the remainder of the party to the President. While they were talking, the train began to back and Mr. Roosevelt called to the crowd to get out of the way, saying that if they didn't mind a good Democrat would be killed. Clerk Nelson, of Prince William Circuit Court responded, "Yes, and there are no Democrats to spare." The President replied that the last returns looked that way.

The President was very democratic and pleasant to all and extended his hand to many.

Washington, May 22.—There was a crowd waiting at the station here to greet the President, including Capt. Keyes, the President's aide, Miss Ethel Roosevelt and Miss Belle Hagner, Mrs. Roosevelt's social secretary. The President said he had had a good time in old Virginia and was feeling fine. Three carriages were at the station to meet the party and they were driven directly to the White House, where Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, the President's daughter, was waiting to meet them.

COTTON SEED PRODUCTS TRADE

Crushers Take Action to Compete With Linseed Products.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Norfolk, Va., May 22.—In order to meet the competition of linseed products in the foreign trade and to create a demand for cotton seed products as a food as well as a fertilizer, the committee on rules of the Cottonseed Crushers Association recommended in their report to the convention at the Jamestown Exposition tonight, a section classifying cottonseed meal and cake on a food basis, using the percentage of protein and fat as a standard for the food, as the percentage of ammonia is the standard as a fertilizer.

All export trade in cottonseed products is for stock food purposes, while the domestic trade is mainly as a fertilizer.

There was no radical change made in the grading of cottonseed oil. Because of the unusually heavy rains last year a large percentage of low grade oil than is usual resulted and the differences in quality were so great that members anticipated some radical changes in rules as regards to oil might be necessary.

DEED OF TRAIN WRECKERS.

One Man Killed and 22 Injured in California Wreck.

Los Angeles, Cal., May 22.—Train No. 20, one of the Southern Pacific's Coast Line flyers, due at 9 o'clock last night, was wrecked on a trestle at West Glendale, ten miles north of here at 12:30 this morning. The wreck was the deliberate work of train wreckers. One man was killed and 22 persons injured, three probably fatally.

Under the first coach which remained on the track, was found the loosened rails, with the wires securely fastened through the bolt holes and the ends uniting in a single strand that led into the brush on the hillside.

At the Southern Pacific general offices in this city notices were posted today offering $10,000 reward for the arrest and conviction of the person or persons responsible for the wreck. The officials announced that they had no clue whatever.

EXCITEMENT IN GEORGIA.

Murders, Killings and Lynchings Stir Up Tatnall County.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Reidsville, Ga., May 22.—Tattnall county has been in a state of excitement today, following the murders, killing and lynchings of yesterday. The asasilant of Mrs. Laura Moore, the assault upon whom caused the bloody deeds, was seen today near Cobbtown. At last reports a posse had him surrounded in a swamp.

Bartow Preston, a member of the posse who was wounded, has been taken to Savannah for surgical treatment. It is feared he cannot recover. The wife of Sam Padgett, one of the slain negroes, admitted today that after withdrawal of the posse that attacked Padgett's cabin, she killed John Hare, a member of the posse, who had been wounded. It had been thought that he was instantly killed by the first shots fired by the negroes.

INSURANCE PRESIDENT RESIGNS

Under Indictment for Forgery and Grand Larceny.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, May 22.—Frederick A. Burnham, indicted for grand larceny and forgery, tendered his resignation from the presidency of the Mutual Reserve Life Insurance Society today. The resignation was accepted and Archibald C. Haynes, formerly general agent for the Equitable Life Assurance Society, was elected to succeed Mr. Burnham.

At the same meeting George D. Eldridge tendered his resignation as vice president, actuary and member of the board of directors. His resignation from the office of vice president was accepted but he still remains actuary of the company and member of the board of directors.

N. Y. COTTON EXCHANGE SUIT

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, May 22.—The complaint of Theodore H. Price of this city against the New York Cotton Exchange in which he asked the courts to enjoin the Exchange from making alleged improper classification of the various grades of cotton, was dismissed today by C. E. Rushmore, the referee appointed by the court to hear the evidence. Counsel for Mr. Price at once asked permission to file an amendmed complaint. A hearing on that question will be given on Friday.

MURPHY-SUMMERS FIGHT

Englishman Came Very Nearly Licking American.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Philadelphia, May 22.—"Tommy" Murphy, of New York, and John Summers, of England, fought one of the hardest six round battles ever witnessed in this city, at the National Athletic Club tonight. It was Summers' first appearance in the ring in this country and he made an excellent impression. In the first round he dropped Murphy with a right to the jaw and in the second round the Harlem fighter was floored twice and only over anxiety of Summers to stop Murphy saved the latter from taking the count. Murphy grew stronger as the fight progressed and more than held his own in the third, fourth, and fifth rounds while the sixth was about even. Murphy's stomach punches had the Englishman tired at the end of the battle.

LOUISVILLE & NASHVILLE WINS.

Judge Pritchard Grants Injunction Against Decreased Rates.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Asheville, N. C., May 22.—An injunction was granted today in the United States Circuit Court by Judge J. C. Pritchard in favor of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad, whereby the Railway Corporation Commissioners of Virginia are enjoined from enforcing the reduction of freight and passenger rates as provided by the recent legislative enactment of that State.

The restraining order is similar to that recently granted by Judge Pritchard in favor of the Southern Railway Company against the Commissioners of Virginia and North Carolina at Asheville June 27.

WARM WIRELETS.

In New York yesterday James N. Hill and Ogden Mills were elected directors of the Erie Railroad to succeed James J. Hill and D. O. Mills, resigned. James N. Hill also was elected a member of the executive committee to fill a vacancy caused by the death of amuel Spencer.

A cablegram from President Zelaya, of Nicaragua, stating that a revolution had broken out in Salvador was received in New Orleans yesterday by the Nicaraguan consul. The cable said that Prudencio Alfara leads the revolution. It contained no other information.

Without deciding to go to Brownsville, the Congressional committee, at Washington investigating the affray there, held an executive meeting yesterday, the majority arguing that it was not necessary to visit Brownsville as the evidence was sufficient to show that negro troops shot up the town.

Fred Bush, who is charged in Atlanta with sending an infernal machine to Miss Kate McCarthy about two weeks ago, the explosion of which caused serious injury to Miss McCarthy's mother and wrecked her home, was indicted in Atlanta yesterday for assault with intent to murder. Bush has been held in jail in default of $10,000 bail since his arrest.

The President and Mrs. Roosevelt, who have been enjoying a six days vacation at Pine Knot, the country home of Mrs. Roosevelt, arrived in Washington at 8:45 o'clock last night. Archie Roosevelt, Assistant Secretary to the President Latta, and Secret Service Officer Sloan were also in the party. The trip was made without any special incident.

Two sessions were held—one in the morning and one in the evening. Mr. C. Lane was transferred to the first division as trainmaster and Mr. Z. B. Zardman to the sixth division in the same capacity.

—Wilson, May 21: Last night Ransom Whitley, probably fatally cut Alex Jones near here over a bag of tobacco. Jones missed his tobacco and suspected Whitley, who learned of Jones' suspicions. Whitley approached Jones and inquired if he accused him of stealing his tobacco. On Jones replying yes, he pulled out a knife and cut him fearfully. Jones cannot recover. Whitley escaped.

—Raleigh News and Observer, May 21: Sheriff Cline, of Lincoln county, who passed through Raleigh with a negro lunatic en route to Goldsboro, said that a drunken white man who was on the train with him, got scared at music being made by passengers who were singing and leaped from the train near Hamlet. The train was stopped, but in the darkness the body of the man could not be found.

—Fayetteville, May 21: At a called meeting of the board of aldermen last evening James H. Burton was elected chief of police for the ensuing term. Fire Chief James S. McNeill having declined a re-election on account of press of business, the position was accepted by his father, Captain J. D. McNeill, president of the National and State Fire Association, a former fire chief of this city, and one of the best and most experienced fire fighters in the state.

—Asheville, May 21: Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Smith and their 18-months-old child had a narrow escape from death by accident on Sunset mountain, east of the city, Sunday afternoon. The couple escaped with painful though not serious injuries, while the child received not a scratch. Mr. Smith, driving the animal attached to the single buggy, was passing along one of the drives on the mountain side, when the horse without a moment's warning whirled and plunged down an embankment, overturning the buggy and landing with the wreckage some 30 feet from the roadway. When the animal first turned for the plunge Mr. Smith caught the child, sitting between his father and mother and, preparing to jump, endeavored to grab his wife. Mrs. Smith, however, had caught to the side of the buggy and Mr. Smith with the child clutched in his arms was forced to half fall and jump from the buggy into the ravine. He landed on one foot some 25 feet from the roadway. In the meantime the horse, with the buggy attached and Mrs. Smith on the seat rolled over and over down the embankment.

—Durham, N. C., May 21: Reports today from the section visited by the severe hail and wind storm late yesterday afternoon show that the damage wrought was very much greater than first reported. Hail fell in torrents for about thirty minutes and after the storm was over hail was from one foot to eighteen inches deep in places where it was drifted. This afternoon Superintendent Thompson, of the road force, who had been over a portion of the storm belt, brought to the city a half bushel box of hailstones that he gathered this afternoon at one o'clock. This shows in a measure the heavy fall during the few minutes that the cloud was passing yesterday afternoon. From reports today it seems that the hail and wind storm started up in Orange county and passed in a southeastern direction, following closely the New Hope Creek bottom. The worst of the storm belt was about half a mile wide, while at places the path of damage was from two to three miles in width. Wheat, oats, cotton, tobacco and other growing crops were beaten into the ground the destruction being complete. With the heavy fall of hail there was a great deal of wind, almost a cyclone, and thus added terror and destruction to the havoc wrought by the hail. At Mr. Weaver's home, in Orange county, some twelve miles from here, his windows were blown out, doors to his home damaged, crop destroyed, about seventy-five chickens killed. There was no loss of life, so far as has been yet reported, but the destruction of crops is such as to put the farmers inside the belt almost on the verge of despair. Practically all of the crops will have to be replanted and the wheat and oat crop is gone entirely.

THE COTTON MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, May 22.—After some early irregularity the cotton market became more active and had a sharp advance on a renewal of bull support and covering. The close was steady net 14 to 21 points higher. Sales were estimated at 350,000 bales. The opening was steady at a decline of 1 to 4 points in response to lower cables and a favorable weather map. There was an advance on covering and bull support which may have been encouraged to some extent by the forecast for showers in parts of the western and central belt and in the afternoon the market which had been comparatively quiet early became more active and somewhat excited with prices advancing some 25 to 28 points from the low point of the morning. Near the close there was realizing under which the active months eased 3 or 4 points off from the best. Very bluish private crop advices were received during the day and probably helped the upward movement. Some wires from Georgia claimed that replanting would be necessary for the third time and that seed was scarce but recent sellers take the view that the reports are greatly exaggerated . Southern spot markets officially reported were generally unchanged.

Receipts of cotton today, 9,305 bales, against 10,300 last week, and 15,018 last year. For the week (estimated), 52,000 bales, against 59,234 last week, and 75,516 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans, 3,244 bales, against 4,296 last year and at Houston, 1,771 bales, against 1,919 last year.

Spot cotton closed steady, 20 points higher; middling uplands, 12.25; middling Gulf, 12.50; sales, 3,800 bales. Futures closed steady.

COTTON.

(Special Star Telegram.)

New York, May 22.—The suit brought against the New York Cotton Exchange, with a view of effecting a reformation in it's methods, has been dismissed by the referee, upon techincal grounds.

This dismissal, however, has not resulted in any withdrawal of my charges or deprived me of further legal resource in the promises. The issue is joined, but not by any means determined. I shall continue by every means within my power, to fight for a just and mercantable contract in New York; and, as long as the crop outlook continues as extraordinary as it is at present, and the indicated shortage in next year's production seems to be as acute as at present, I continue to believe that higher prices for cotton are justified.

I cannot but be amused by the various rumors current with regard to my position in the market. I have heard today, alternately, that I was heavily short and heavily long. As a matter of fact, I believe that cotton is going higher and very much higher before spinners will be able to secure from the crop now being planted any reasonable proportion of the cotton they require. I shall publish my report, giving the acreage and condition of the crop, on Friday next. As far as I have been able to digest the replies thus far received, the indications are that it will be an extremely bullish document.

BAPTIST CHURCHES NORTH AND SOUTH

FIVE THOUSAND PRESENT

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Norfolk, Va., May 22.—While no resolution of any nature was adopted at the first day's sessions of the North American Baptist Convention, held at the Jamestown Exposition today, from the addresses made by members of all three organizations within the association, a strong sentiment is revealed against a religious consolidation of the Southern, Northern and National Conventions, the latter being the negro church, but a general consolidation for concerted work is enthusiastically favored. There are 5,000 people attending the convention.

Contrary to original plans, two sessions were held. At the first, which began at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, the principal address was made by Edwin William Stevens, of Missouri, the president of the convention. At the evening session Andrew Jackson Montague, former governor of Virginia, delivered the formal address of welcome, and the response was made by Rev. H. M. King, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Providence.

A concise summing up of the work of the Baptists was given in the address of President Stevens. According to his statistics, there are now 50,000 churches of the denomination, with 5,000,000 members,and representing $10,000,000 of invested money. There are 25,000 home missionaries, with 8,000 more in foreign fields and 150,000 converts are the result of the work abroad.

A concerted action developed today to bring to America in 1910 the World's Baptist Alliance, which met in London in 1905. On behalf of Philadelphia, invitations to meet in that city were extended to the Alliance, through the North American Convention by Rev. A. J. Rowland, secretary of the American Baptist Publication Society, and Rev. Orlando T. Stewart, both of Philadelphia.

Foreign and home missionary work and the progress being made in it were the subjects of short addresses by Rev. Thomas Barbour, of Boston, assistant to Rev. H. C. Mabie, who is now in China celebrating the centennial of Baptist missions in that country, and Rev. R. J. Willingham, corresponding secretary of the Southern Baptist Convention's foreign mission board.

Rev. C. E. Morris, representing the National Baptist Convention, declared one-third of the negro race is made up of Baptists with 16,000 churches, 15,000 preachers and 2,200,000 members.

Speaking of Baptist progress in Canada, Rev. J. G. Brown, corresponding secretary of the foreign mission board of Ontario and Quebec, said that the city of Winnepeg has 100,000 inhabitants who speak 60 different languages and that the Baptists are supplying the Bible to them in forty-three languages.

Rev. H. L. Morehouse, of New York, and Rev. D. G. Gray, of Nashville, who are the corresponding secretaries respectively of the Northern and Southern Conventions, spoke briefly on church progress.

At the night session a general discussion followed the addresses of Mr. Montague and Rev. Dr. Stewart upon the question "To what extent may a Christian denomination properly engage in the correction of public evils."

LOUISVILLE ELECTION VOID

Kentucky Court Denounces Methods of Democrats and Fusionists.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Frankfort, Ky., May 22.—The Court of Appeals today handed down its opinion in the contested election cases from the city of Louisville and Jefferson county, upholding the contentions of the Fusionists and declaring the election void, thus reversing the decision of Judges Miller and Kirby, of Jefferson Circuit Court. The court rules that Governor Beckham has the power to fill the vacancies by appointment and an election for all city and county officials is ordered for next November. The opinion deals in details with election outrages and the use of the police at the polling places on registration and election days. It declares them to be as repulsive to the citizen as would be the use of State troops, and not to be tolerated in future elections. The campaign methods of both Fusionists and Democrats in the election are denounced and so is the use of over $100,000 campaign fund in the contest.

SPEAKER CANNON STANDS PAT.

Report Not True That He is For Revision of Tariff.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, May 22.—Speaker Cannon, on having his attention called to a report which has gained currency that he is out for tariff revision as a Presidential candidate and has abandoned the stand-patters, today said:

"I do not know where the grape vine originated. The only knowledge I have in the matter is the report."

Mr. Cannon said further: "In the campaign of a year ago the Republican party won a victory which gave the Republicans a majority of 58 in the Sixtieth Congress, which organizes in December next, upon the cry 'Let well enough alone,' and I have no doubt that the Sixtieth Congress so elected will be true to the pledges made in the campaign."

MR. HARRIMAN MUST ANSWER

Interstate Commerce Commission Will Not Await Result of Rroceedings.

NO DELAY TO BE TOLERATED

Commission Will Apply at Once to Federal Court for Order to Compel Railroad Magnate to Tell What He Knows.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, May 22.—It is not the intention of the Inter-State Commerce Commission to await the result of the proceedings to be instituted against E. H. Harriman to compel him to answer certain inquiries that were put to him in the New York investigation before taking action on the general subject of the investigation.

In the opinion of members of the Commission, it will be a year or even more before the final decision can be reached regarding the effort of the Commission to compel Mr. Harriman to answer its questions. The proceedings to that end will be instituted in the courts of the Southern District of New York the latter part of this month or the first of next month. They will be for the purpose of obtaining an order from the court to compel Mr. Harriman to respond to the inquiries. It is expected that, if the court should issue such an order, Mr. Harriman may carry the case to the Supreme Court of the United States. Should the lower court's decision be adverse to the Commission it is probable that it will carry the matter to the highest tribunal, inasmuch as the question involves a right of the Commission which it believes it ought to exercise in an untrammeled way.

It is likely that the report of the Commission on the Harriman matter will be made up and published, for it is the intention of the Commission to make it public, long before a final determination of the proceedings to compel Mr. Harriman to answer the mooted questions is reached.

What the report of the Commission may be cannot be foretold, for the commission as a body has not considered the subject in its general phases. A pressure of other work has compelled the Commission to postpone definite action on the Harriman inquiry. The indications are, however, that a determination of the case will be reached in a few weeks.

WALKING RACE 2,680 MILES

Two St. Louis Men Left Yesterday for Jamestown Exposition.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

St. Louis, May 22.—William A. Smith and Richard C. Belle, who have accomplished several feats of pedestrianism, today started to walk from St. Louis to the Jamestown Exposition, which they expect to reach August 19. The distance is about 2,680 miles. The walk is in the nature of a race. The general route extends to Helena, Ark., where the Mississippi river will be crossed, thence to Birmingham, Ala., Atlanta, Ga., the capitals of the two Carolinas, then to Jamestown. The railroad tracks will be followed to avoid hills. The race will end at Jamestown in a six day race at the exposition.

CLOSER RELATIONS ARE CONSIDERED

Southern Presbyterian Convention at Birmingham Earnestly Argues Charlotte Agreement

COMPROMISES ARE OFFERED

One Substitute Proposes That All Churches Shall Agree Before Union Can Be Had With Northern Presbyterian Church.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Birmingham, Ala., May 22.—The developments of this afternoon's session of the General Assembly of the Southern Presbyterian Church were many and unexpected. After the cloud of argument and discussion of the articles of agreement had cleared away, the situation seemed to stand thus.

A statement had been submitted by the chairman of both the minority and mapority of the special committee on articles of agreement, Rev. J. S. Lyons of Louisville, and Rev. F. T. Glasgow, of Lexington, Va., proposing to take the place of both previous reports which had been argued so extensively amending the articles of agreement by striking out the last clause in article four, submitting the words "for their consideration" for the last caluse in article six, and changing the words "two thirds" on article 17, to "all."

This substitute would take away all judiciary powers whatever from the proposed council, making it simply advisory and would require the consent of all the churches before any amendment might be made. Neal L. Anderson surprised the Assembly by vigorously attacking such a plan and just as adjournment was ordered for the afternoon W. R. Dobyns, of St. Joseph, Mo., gave notice of an amendment to the substitute as follows:

"Resolved, That the Assembly adopt the articles of agreement and enter this council, and at the same time instruct her commissioners to use all honorable means to have the amendments made to the articles of agreement which are mentioned in the substitute."

He explained that the difference between this amendment and the substitute, is that while the substitutes provides that the articles be adopted and the representatives of the Assembly be authorized to enroll as members of the council as soon as the council shal approve of the amendments. Mr. Dobyns amendment provides that the articles be adopted and the members enrolled before the amendments are approved and attempt to secure their approval.

The Rev. Dr. William McPhetters, of Columbia, Tenn., also gave notice of an amendment to the substitute by which the Presbyterians would be overtured by the General Assembly recommending a change in the constitution of the church, giving the Assembly the power to form an alliance by articles of agreement, as changed by the substitute, with other churches for the purpose of arbitration and spiritual unity and that the Presbyteries send up overtures on the subject at the next meeting of the Assembly, thus postponing action a year in order to satisfy the constitutional objections to the adoption of articles of agreement.

COTTONSEED OIL ON ITS MERITS

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Norfolk, Va., May 22.—A two-hour address by Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, chemist of the Department of Agriculture, was the feature of today's session of the Inter-State Cottonseed Crushers' Association in eleventh annual convention here. Dr. Wiley's subject was "A Good Name is Rather to Be Chosen than Great Riches." He dwelled at length upon the harm to the cottonseed industry that is worked by adulteration and by the use of patent names. He referred to the value of the simple name, cottonseed oil, and urged the crushers to do away with the patent designations and use the original. He spent some time discussing the commercial value of the product and advocated purity of preparations without exception. He declared it to be a great food product.

Natheniel G. Fowler, Jr., of Boston, who is the exploitation director of the association, delivered an interesting address on "Cottonseed Oil Publicity," calling attention to the advantages of publicity and urging increased efforts in that direction. He declared women should know the worth of the product and the ladies at the conclusion of his address presented Mr. Fowler with a handsome floral offering. This subject also was discussed, following which the body took up unfinished reports of committees.

"A ROCK IN THE BALTIC"

BY BOBERT BARR.

This charming story, stirring in action, abounding in thrilling episodes and dramatic situations, will be published serially in The Sunday Star, beginning next week.

Robert Barr is one of Americas most favorite writers of fiction; his stories are vigorous and scintillate with the wit and philosophy which made the writer famous as Luke Sharp in the Detroit Free Press before he began to write novels.

"A Rock in the Baltic" tells of a fascinating American girl whi inherits $15,000,000 and how she used it to secure liberty for her lover and that of her chum from a Russian dungeon.
